

TRIPLETT WARRANTY AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

The Triplett Electrical Instrument Company warrants instruments manufactured by it to be free from defective material or factory workmanship and agrees to repair or replace such instruments which under normal use and service, disclose the defect to be the fault of our manufacturing. Our obligation under this warranty is limited to repairing or replacing any instrument or test equipment which proves to be defective, when returned to us transportation prepaid, within ninety (90) days from the date of original purchase.

This warranty does not apply to any of our products which have been repaired or altered by unauthorized persons or service stations in any way so as, in our judgment, to injure their stability or reliability or which have been subject to misuse, negligence, or accident, or which have had the serial number altered, effaced, or removed. Neither does this warranty apply to any of our products which have been connected, installed, or adjusted otherwise than in accordance with the instructions furnished by us. Accessories including all vacuum tubes and batteries not of our manufacture used with this product are not covered by this warranty.

The Triplett Electrical Instrument Company reserves the right to discontinue models at any time, or change specifications or design, without notice and without incurring any obligation.

Upon acceptance of the material covered by this invoice the purchaser agrees to assume all liability for any damages and bodily injury which may result from the use or misuse of the material by the purchaser, his employees, or others, and that The Triplett Electrical Instrument Company shall incur no liability for direct or consequential damage of any kind.

Parts will be made available for a maximum period of five (5) years after the manufacture of this equipment has been discontinued. Parts include all materials, charts, instructions,
